

Tryna Rodman 6/26/23, The logic of this diagram is that it starts off with a fixed integer, then one can input another integer as y. After that a decision is being made whether or not x is greater than y, and if the contrary is true then yes for $x > y$ and no for $y > x$. After the process ends.